SCCC Named Large Club of the Year
at 50th Anniversary N4C Convention

SIOUX CITY, IA – For the sixth year in a row the Sioux City Camera Club was named the Large Club of the Year at the recent 50th Anniversary N4C Convention held recently in Sioux City where the N4C was founded.

The club of the year award is based upon club point total accumulated during the 2005-2006 N4C year from 16 contest categories.

It was the 21st time the Sioux City Camera Club has been named as the Large Club of the Year.

During the 2005-2006 year the entries were broken down into Class A and Class B Prints (Color and Black and White) and Slides (2 x 2 and 2 1/4).

For the upcoming 2006-2007 year the rules for entry into N4C has changed to Large Prints (up to 16 x 20 size including the matte) and Small Prints (up to 11 x 14 size including the matte).

The slide categories have not changed and the N4C has added one new category, digital imaging which will be entered through email, media imaging files.

The small club winner for Club of the Year was the Iowa City Camera Club.

Steve Paulson won the Margrieta Delle Award from the Iowa City Camera Club. It is given for the 1st place slide in Nature.

According to Robert Gillespie, Convention Chairman, the club received many accolades from the over 120 N4C members who attended.
