March Program

The SCCC programs for the February meeting Thursday the 8th will feature:

1. Jack Bristow will demonstrate the use of the matte grooving equipment which he recently used on a print we saw at our last meeting. This adds a neat finishing touch to the presentation of an image.
2. Bob Gillespie will Discuss "Ideas for finding places or thing to shoot". Often we get into a rut or come up with a blank when trying to be creative. Hope this will help
3. Bob will also present some ideas on organizing a photo exhibit.

• After the break I suggest that all members bring an image which they are not quite satisfied with, and be prepared in open forum to receive ideas from other members in ways that the image could be improved. Another member could then present his work for "helpful" discussion, and so on. If all members would do this, a real exchange of ideas could benefit everyone.

Have a great meeting, Steve

Photographers Rights

The article at this website <http://www.krages.com/ThePhotographersRight.pdf> describes your rights as a photographer to take photographs in public places.

The situation isn't always well defined and does not insure that you won't be confronted or need to be courteous.

Ken Johnson--Des Moines Camera Club

10 Tips to shoot like a pro

1. Tighten up.

Don't leave too much space above the head. Frame the subject, not the view.

2. Skip the zoom.

Instead, move closer to your subject

3. Use high angles.

Always have subjects pose chin up. It makes them look better. And try not to shoot from a low angle, because it gives them the dreaded double chin.

4. Don't keep hitting the "delete" button.

Resist the urge to delete for space just because a shot isn't perfect. Many great shots are happy mistakes.

5. Mind the light.

Shadows and highlights can affect the mood of the subject or location. Pay attention to light at different times of day.

6. Use the flash...

Perfect light – overcast, end of the day – is rare, so use the flash indoors and whenever you're within 10 feet of your subject.

7. ...But don't be afraid of natural light.

It can be the most flattering.

8. Take at least two shots.

Always try the shot a few different ways—once with the flash on, once with it off.

9. Be encouraging.

Say things like, "Wow!" "Beautiful," "Great," "Amazing!" The louder, the better.

10. Keep shooting.

Continue to snap pictures after the posing stops: This is when the magic often happens.

The N4C Photo Essay Contest
Telling Your Story "Artistically"

Deadline: April 2th 2007

Send to:

Dwight Tomes

7883 NW 103rd Ln

Grimes IA 50111

A picture is worth a thousand words – but what if your picture(s) are asking for some music and words to make it complete!

The N4C photo essay is your chance to combine your photography, your choice of music, and if you wish narration to tell your friends about your favorite place for photography, illustrate a 'how to,' or just to have fun.

The subject matter is completely open, you can mix and match the old and new, and use as much creativity and imagination as you can find (or borrow from those who have done this before!).

Now's the time to consider what your story will be and start getting your slides, negatives scanned, or digital images together or to take that extra image or two that will round out what you need.

Now's the time to find the music and compose any narration you wish to use for your essay.

The software for making a slide show with sound has increased, almost on a monthly basis.

Here's the best guidance for producing an essay: use any software you want, but make sure that it will either convert to DVD format (the best), Windows Media Player, or Quick Time.

The end result will play on all computers, and in the case of DVD format, on your home DVD player or many newer TV's.

If you have any questions about software, conversion to DVD format or other topics, please don't hesitate to contact me directly at d.tomes@mac.com or call me at 515 986 3913.

Here's what you need to know about the judging. The three areas that are judged are (1) overall impression, (2) photography and (3) commentary and sound track.

The overall impression includes interest, originality, mood and impact while the photography stresses the familiar categories of technical quality, composition, variety, and absence of distractions.

The commentary and sound track are judged on their style, appropriateness, and combination of music, narration, and sound effects.

One additional factor for the slide essay is how all the components flow together to tell the story – visually, sound, and 'smoothness'.
